

Felicitation of Sajish Ali for Receiving the Presidential Award on NSS on 11.11.2023

The Department of Botany proudly felicitated Mr. Sajish Ali on 11th November 2023 for his remarkable achievement in receiving the prestigious Presidential Award on NSS (National Service Scheme). The department honored him with a traditional phulam gamusa, a japi, and a memento (Excellence Achievement Award) as a token of appreciation for his outstanding contribution to community service and social welfare.

The felicitation ceremony was a moment of great pride for the Department, as Sajish Ali's dedication and exemplary efforts in the NSS brought recognition not only to himself but also to the Department and the Institution. Faculty members, staff, and students gathered to celebrate his achievement and expressed their admiration for his commitment to societal betterment.

The Department commended him as a role model for his peers and encouraged other students to emulate his spirit of service and leadership. The event concluded with warm wishes for his future endeavors and continued success in inspiring others.
