The Entrepreneurship Development Programme (EDP) on Paper Mache & Candle Making was organized by the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), North Gauhati College, in collaboration with the Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII), Ahmedabad, from 17 February 2026 to 12 March 2026. The programme aimed to promote entrepreneurship among students and local youth by providing practical skills in paper mache craft and candle making while encouraging self-employment and small business development.

Objectives

The major objectives of the programme were:

- To develop entrepreneurial skills among participants.
- To provide hands-on training in paper mache craft and candle making.
- To encourage innovation and creativity in handicrafts.

- To promote self-employment and income-generating opportunities.
- To enhance participants' knowledge of product design, quality, packaging, and marketing.

Programme Activities

The training programme included both theoretical and practical sessions covering:

- Introduction to entrepreneurship and business opportunities.
- Preparation of paper mache products using eco-friendly materials.
- Designing and painting decorative paper mache items.
- Candle making techniques, including pillar candles, decorative candles, floating candles, and scented candles.
- Product finishing, packaging, branding, and pricing.
- Marketing strategies for handicraft products.
- Guidance on starting micro-enterprises and accessing government support schemes.

Participants actively engaged in practical sessions and successfully created a variety of handcrafted products.

Products Prepared

During the programme, participants produced several attractive handmade items, including:

- Decorative paper mache masks
- Hand-painted pen holders
- Decorative bottles
- Flower vases
- Wall hangings
- Paper mache figurines
- Pillar candles
- Floating candles
- Decorative candles
- Multicoloured designer candles

These products were displayed during the concluding exhibition, showcasing the creativity and craftsmanship of the participants.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the programme, participants were able to:

- Understand the basics of entrepreneurship.
- Develop practical skills in paper mache and candle making.
- Design attractive handicraft products using low-cost materials.
- Improve creativity and artistic skills.
- Gain knowledge of product packaging, branding, and marketing.
- Build confidence to start small-scale enterprises or self-employment ventures.

Outcome of the Programme

The Entrepreneurship Development Programme was successfully conducted with enthusiastic participation. The practical approach enabled participants to gain confidence in producing marketable handicraft products. The exhibition of finished items demonstrated the skills acquired during the training. The programme inspired participants to consider entrepreneurship as a viable career option and highlighted the potential of handicraft-based businesses for generating sustainable livelihoods.
