NOTICE

Regarding the Mandatory Attendance for appearing the Sessional Examinations in coming time this is to inform all students that North Gauhati College is strictly monitoring the attendance system for the current academic session. To ensure academic discipline and eligibility for the upcoming Sessional Examinations, students must adhere to the following directives:

- 75% Attendance Requirement: Regular class attendance is mandatory. Only students maintaining a minimum of 75% attendance will be permitted to appear for the Sessional Examinations.
- Commencement Date: Attendance records for this eligibility criteria will be strictly monitored effective from 09.02.2026.
- No second chance of Sessional Examinations: There will be no second chances or "make-up" sittings provided for the Sessional Examinations. This cycle is final.

Students are advised to ensure the same to avoid interruption in their academic growth.

Exceptions & Special Permissions: Special consideration may be granted only in extraordinary circumstances, such as:

1. Medical Grounds: Must be supported by valid medical certificates.
2. Extracurricular Excellence: Participation in recognized extraordinary cultural or sports activities.

Note: All such cases are subject to rigorous verification and formal approval by the college administration.
